September Events
Welcome Party/Game Night: Friday, September 18th, 4:30-5:30PM
Come celebrate the beginning of the semester with our Writing Center staff! Enjoy snacks and play games while meeting new people!

Listening Discussion Group Part I (Lectures): Wednesday, September 30th, 3:30-4:30PM
If you’re having trouble understanding class lectures, or just want to get more practice listening to spoken English, our listening groups are a great way to practice. For Part I, we will listen to a TED talk and discuss it afterwards.

October Events
Language Lunch (Grammar Discussion): Friday, October 9th, 12:00-1:00PM
Have a question about English grammar? Then come to our popular open-discussion lunch!

Listening Discussion Group Part II (TV): Thursday, October 15th, 4:00-5:00PM
For part two of our listening group, we will be watching excerpts from TV shows that are famous in U.S. popular culture. We’ll also be discussing slang and informal English used in each show.

United Nations Day: Friday, October 23rd, 3:00-5:00PM
In honor of United Nations week, come learn about different world cultures from our international Conversation Partners and volunteers while sharing about your own cultural traditions! Enjoy some international snacks and games!

Halloween Party: Friday, October 30th, 4:30-6:00PM
Join us for a Halloween scavenger hunt, candy-naming contest, and candy raffle. Come dressed in costume and you might win a prize!

November Events
Language Lunch (Intercultural Communication): Friday, November 6th, 12-1PM
Learn more about how context can change the meanings of certain phrases in English. What can make a phrase polite or rude? Sarcastic or serious? Indirect or direct?

Thanksgiving Event with the IELP and ISA: Official time and date to be determined

December Events
End of Semester Party: Friday, December 4th, 4:30-5:30PM
Don’t miss our last event of the semester! Enjoy snacks and chat in small groups with our staff and alumni.
